How to use the Kobe Life Enhancement Center

As a place for learning and networking

Free spaces are available for individual study, group meetings, and other activities. Various events and courses are also organized at the Center each month, so feel free to join them.

As a place for gathering information

Various flyers with information on events in Hyogo and free newspapers are available at the Center. In the library sections, a total of about 10,000 books, including those useful for daily life, are available for borrowing.

As a rental space

The facilities available for rent for a fee are as follows: seminar rooms for meetings, workshops, etc., studio rooms for dance lessons, etc., the kitchen for cooking activities, and the gallery for exhibiting artwork.

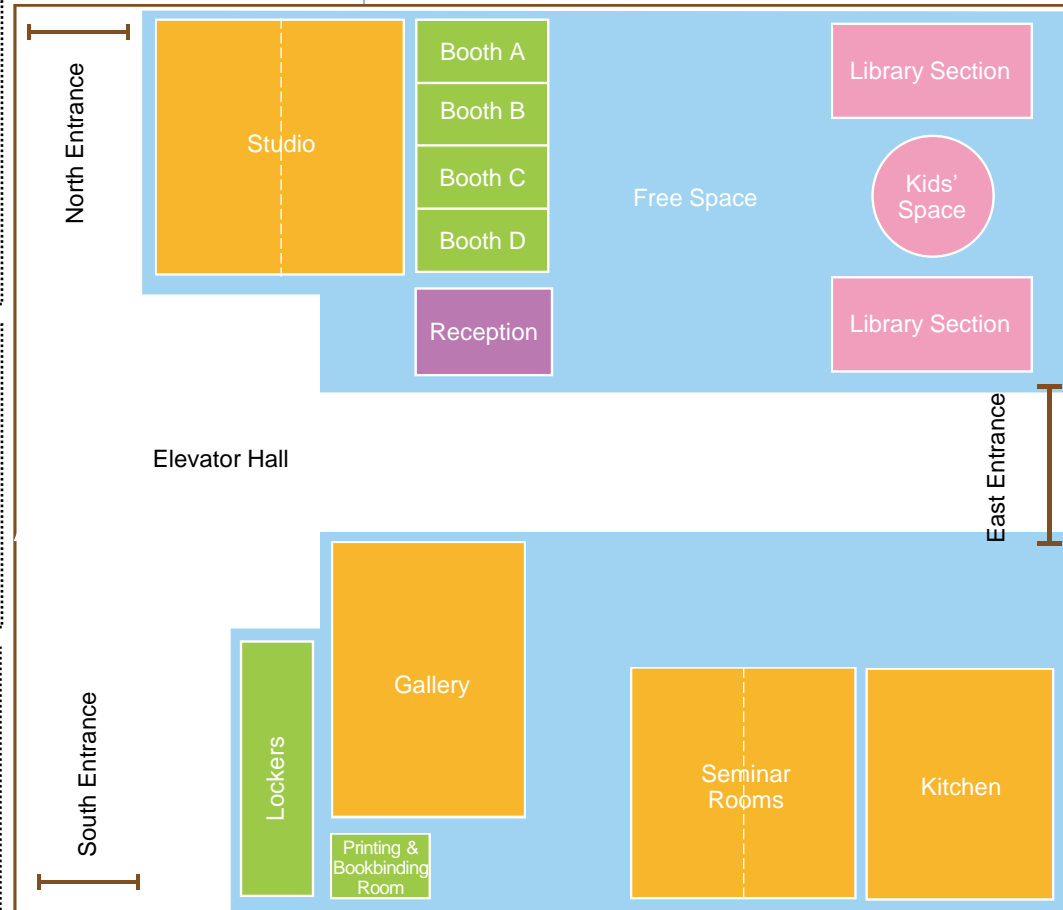

As a place for group activities

The Center can be used as a base for group activities. Registered groups can use the Center's activity booths and some other facilities for free and receive various forms of support from the Center.
